INJURY SUSTAINED IN ACCIDENT FATAL

Elmer J. Ralston, Age 50, Dies From
Effects of Being Hit on Head
by Twelve Foot Board

HURT AT FURNITURE FACTORY

Injuries Did Not at First Appear to
Be Serious Until He Lapsed Into
Unconsciousness

Elmer J. Ralston, age 50 years, 307 East Eighth street, who was fatally hurt Monday afternoon at the Rushville Furniture factory, expired of injuries at his home Tuesday night about seven o'clock.

The deceased, while working as a band saw operator at the factory, was struck in the head with a twelve foot board which toppled off of a small truck in the factory, on Monday afternoon. Fellow workmen, seeing his danger, gave him warning, but he did not jump out of its way in time, and the plank fell, striking him on the head.

He was not believed to have been hurt seriously, and was taken to the Dr. F. H. Green hospital, where his injuries were dressed, and when he was removed to his home, he walked into the house. At nine o'clock Monday night, he lapsed into unconsciousness, and never regained his senses.

An examination by physicians did not disclose a fractured skull, but he suffered internal hemorrhages, which caused his death at seven o'clock last night.

The deceased came to Rush county two years ago from Johnson county, and moved to Rushville five weeks ago from the L. M. Clark farm, south of Rushville, where he took employment at the local factory until spring, when he was to move to the Wood Bishop farm northeast of Rushville.

The deceased is survived by the widow and four children, Lawrence, who resides in Indianapolis, and Dorothy, Margaret, and Esther, who reside at home, his mother, Mrs. Eliza J. Ralston of Vernon and a brother, Harvey C. Ralston of Vinton, Iowa.

The funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at ten o'clock at the late residence, and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

AMERICAN ARMY IS NOT TO BE WITHDRAWN

On Rhine Due To Threatened
Crisis In Europe

FRENCH DENY RUHR RUMOR

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 29.—The French embassy here issued a statement today denying reports that France had decided to seize the Ruhr valley in Germany if Germany fails to meet her next reparation payment.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The American army of occupation on the Rhine will not be returned to the United States for the present "because of an important reason in connection with foreign affairs", the United Press was informed today by high authorities of government.

It was indicated that continuing maintenance of the American forces of the Rhine is due to the threatened crisis over the possibility that France will seize the Ruhr valley.

It was declared authoritatively that Secretary Weeks is in favor of bringing the troops home as soon as possible and that the forces were to have been returned two months ago, if it had not been for this important and unnamed development in foreign affairs.

The German government has repeatedly appealed to the United States to maintain its forces believing its presence has acted as a restraint of French policies.

VIGILANTS BATTLE WITH THE UNDERWORLD

War Rages In Smackover, Ark., Oil
Field, One Man Being Killed And
A Number Wounded

PART OF SETTLEMENT BURNS

(By United Press)

Eldorado, Ark., Nov. 29.—A new battle between underworld characters and vigilants has broken out near the border of Ouachita and Union counties in the Smackover oil field district, according to reports received here.

A part of the settlement was said to be on fire. Two thousand bootleggers, drive gangs and gamblers are aligned against the vigilants in a skirmish which flared last night and lasted for hours, according to meagre reports.

At least one man was killed and a score wounded in last night's fight reports reaching here indicated.

Unconfirmed reports were that twenty-five were killed or injured. The fight broke out when an ultimatum delivered by the vigilants ordering the underworld element to leave town by midnight, was ignored.

The district has been turbulent since Sunday. The underworld element was said to be well organized. Stragglers arriving here from near the scene of the reported fighting, said several houses in the underworld are said to have been burned.

ARE ENCOURAGED BY ROLL CALL REPORTS

Three Townships Show More Than
100 Per Cent Gain In Red Cross
Memberships For 1923

ENCOURAGING IN THE CITY

Those in charge of the annual Red Cross Roll Call, which opened November 11 (Armistice Day) and is scheduled to close Thanksgiving Day, are very much encouraged by partial reports that are being received at Roll Call headquarters in the recorder's office at the court house.

Three townships have reported more than a hundred per cent increase in membership for 1923 and the city canvassers have met with encouragement in soliciting membership for the coming year.

The most decided gains were made in Richland Orange and Posey townships. Richland did not turn in a single membership last Roll Call, but forty-nine have been reported from the township, which has not been completely canvassed. One canvasser in Orange township has obtained fourteen members for 1923, with three-fourths of the township yet to report. There were only five members in this township this year. Posey, which in the 1922 Roll Call, enrolled only eighteen members, has so far reported eighty-one memberships, with one-fourth of the township not heard from. The west half of Walker township has reported sixty 1923 members and the east half is expected to do equally as well. Approximately $560 has been raised in Rushville city and there are several districts yet to report.

265 ILLITERATES IN RUSH COUNTY

Of This Number, 87 Live in Rushville, According to Statistics Gathered on Subject

BIG PERCENT A SURPRISE

American Educational Week Arranged to Make Impossible Such Conditions as Exist Here

There are 265 persons in Rush county who do not know how to read or write, according to figures given out in connection with American Education Week, to be observed throughout the United States, from December 3 to the 10. Of this number, 87 live within the city limits of Rushville, the figures show.

The fact that this large number of illiterate people live in Rushville and the county, comes as a distinct shock to most people, and demonstrates forcefully the need of some such movement as American Education Week, school officials point out.

In this connection, the figures also reveal that the number of illiterates in the state has increased within the last ten years. The list of illiterates includes feeble minded people in state institutions, and others who have neglected to obtain an education.

A large percent of the illiterates in the county have lived here all of their lives, it is reported. Some are foreigners and some have moved here from other parts of the United States but the failure to educate the bulk of them falls upon the schools of the county and city, it is declared. Failure to enforce school attendance laws in past years is believed to be the cause of much of the illiteracy. The school attendance law has been strengthened and is now better enforced with the result that few girls or boys are now growing up in the county without learning to read and write, it is stated.

The number of illiterates in Rush county is above the number for some of the adjoining counties, and in some places the counties and cities around here are above Rush county. The greatest number of such people are found in the northern counties along Lake Michigan, which is due to foreigners residing there. In Lake county, 9,627 illiterates reside, according to the survey.

With 265 illiterates in Rush county, the figures for some of the other counties are as follows: Shelby 411, Wayne 535, Henry 577, Fayette 224, Hancock 195, Union 66, Franklin 211, Decatur 177, and Ripley 149.

A comparison of the cities also is made, with Rushville at 87, Shelbyville 165, Warsaw 31, Winchester 55, Comersville 135, Greenfield 50, Greensburg 76, Franklin 88, Columbus 190, Labanon 92, Martinsville 106, Seymour 62, Newcastle 151, Richmond 330 and Greencastle 59.

SERVICES TO BE AT 10 A. M.

Hour For Thanksgiving Union Meeting Thursday Is Changed

The annual union Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Presbyterian church Thursday morning at ten o'clock, instead of 10:30, as previously announced, and the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. E. W. McKibben, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will deliver the sermon. A combined choir representing all the churches will provide special music.

Business will be generally suspended during the day. The banks, clothing stores, dry goods stores and practically all other retail establishments will be closed for the day. The postoffice will be closed, but perishable mail and special deliveries will be delivered and mail will be dispatched as usual.

ODD FELLOWS NOTICE

The members of Franklin lodge No. 35 I. O. O. F. will meet at the hall Friday at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of Claude C. Owen.

RYON FREED IN PATERNITY CASE

Jury Hears Similar Suit Today In Which John Passmore Of Near Manilla Is Defendant

MANY WITNESSES SUMMONED

Twenty-Six Names Drawn For Special Jury Service To Hear Two Criminal Cases

The jury which heard the case in the circuit court acquitted Charley Ryon of this city on the paternity charges filed by Edith Ellerman, a resident of Franklin county, and the jury today was against sitting in another paternity case in which John Passmore of near Manilla was the defendant, and Stella Walls of the same community, was the prosecuting witness.

The case today was longer in the evidence than the one yesterday, as there were many witnesses summoned for the trial. The case yesterday was brief, and was tried in a few hours, and the jury acquitted the defendant within half an hour after they got the case.

The defendant today was charged with being the father of a child born to Stella Walls in June 1921. It is charged that the defendant named by the young woman left the vicinity a few weeks ago, when he returned he was arrested.

The attorneys for the defense attempted to show that several other young men of that community left about the same time, but the prosecuting witness denied that she ever associated with any other than the one named.

Twenty-six names were ordered drawn for special jury service this morning to be used in two prominent state cases. A portion of these jurors are to be called Friday when the case of the state against Fred Clevenger is set for trial. The defendant is accused of having sold liquor. The rest of the jurors will be called for service on Monday when Mary Ellen Hughes, a Rushville girl is scheduled to be tried on a charge of embezzlement of funds from the Johnson drug store.

Four new civil suits have been docketed in this court. The case of Fred Hilligoss against Donel Laughlin, filed in Justice Stech's court, and dismissed because of lack of jurisdiction, has been refiled in the circuit court, with the demand on an account for $175.

John Moore is plaintiff in a suit for divorce from Fannie Moore, alleging that she was cruel, failed to cook his meals, stayed out at nights, and made life miserable for him. They were married July 27, 1903 and separated January 16, 1920, according to the complaint. He also asks the custody of their two sons. The plaintiff is a resident of Arlington.

Edwin F. Shideler is plaintiff in a suit filed against John R. Thompson of this city, the complaint being for $275, on an account which is alleged to be past due.

J. B. Colt of New York City has also filed a suit against Denny Whitaker of southwestern Rush county, the complaint being on a contract, with the demand for $300 judgement.

Red Cross Thanks-Giving

By ROBERT E. MANSFIED

In this season of Thanksgiving, the people of Rush county should remember the American Red Cross, which has in the past, and is at the present time, giving relief, aid and comfort to thousands of unfortunates who are suffering, and in sorrow.

The annual roll call for membership is drawing to a close, and tomorrow, Thanksgiving day, when you return thanks for a bountiful dinner, and the many blessings that have come to you during the year 1922, and to the spirit of thankfulness that pervades the country on the greatest of our national feast days, an act of Christian charity by giving your dollar to the Red Cross.

The Little Theatre

By JESSIE SPANN GARY
The dramatic instinct is as old as life itself. It should be cultivated, not repressed.

In the history of the drama great things have been done, only when it has been close to the people, all the people, not just those who can pay for a box seat. The American stage, so long stultified by the box office and the star system, is entering up on a period of regeneration, and this is due chiefly to the Little Theatre groups, who are now extending their influence to the small town. Do we want Rushville to lag behind?

The fact that we have abundant talent both musical and dramatic, has been demonstrated again and again. The only criticism of recent home talent productions has been that they lack variety. This deficiency the Little Theatre hopes to supply by offering choice bits of legitimate drama; by giving us all something to think about as well as something to enjoy.

It is my earnest hope that the Little Theatre may become a permanent institution and a source of community pride. This is the accepted time because we have, just now in the leadership of Raymond Gregg, an opportunity that should not be neglected. "The play's the thing." Let's all lend our talents, whether they be ten, five or only one.

LUNCHEON TO MARK CAMPAIGN OPENING

M. A. Auberbach, Secretary Of Indiana Tuberculosis Association
To Address Workers Here

CHRISTMAS SEALS DRIVE

A luncheon at the Social Club Saturday noon will mark the beginning of the Christmas Seals campaign in Rush county, which will be conducted this year by the Phi Iota Xi sorority under the auspices of the Woman's Council.

At the luncheon, M. A. Auberbach of Indianapolis, secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis association, and Mrs. Curtis Hodges, also of Indianapolis, will speak and will give the workers present an insight into what will be expected of them in the forthcoming campaign.

The luncheon will be attended by the members of the Woman's Council and the sorority, and the members of the township advisory board of the council.

The proceeds from the sale of the little Christmas stickers are the main source of revenue for financing the city nurse and for supporting the modern health crusades and tuberculosis clinics in the township.

BROOKS TO DIE IN THE "CHAIR" FRIDAY

Seymour Man Sits in His Cell Thinking Not of Thanksgiving Day But the Day Following

CONVICTED OF MURDER IN MAY

Michigan City, Ind. Nov. 29.—Ben Brooks sat in his cell today thinking not of tomorrow—Thanksgiving day—but of Friday, December 1.

In the first hour of Friday, Brooks will die in the electric chair at the state prison.

He was convicted last spring of the murder of A. B. Montgomery at Seymour, Ind. He had quarrelled with Montgomery for starting a story about his stealing chickens, he said.

In May he was sentenced to death. Setting a date for the execution was delayed while he appealed to the state supreme court. This body recently upheld the ruling of the lower judiciary.

Tomorrow with other prisoners, he will eat chicken, oyster dressing, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, apples, celery and pumpkin pie. This probably will be his last large meal in this world.

Soon after the clock tolls the hour of midnight tomorrow night, Brooks will take his place in the electric chair and die.

CLAUDE OWEN DIES AT HIS HOME HERE

Well Known As Musician And Gained Prominence In Odd Fellows Lodge Holding Position of Herald

NAMED BY GRAND ENCAMPMENT

Poisoning Develops After Deceased Contracted Carbuncle And Pneumonia Complications Are Fatal

Claude Owen, a well known musician and young man, expired this morning about 10:30 o'clock at the family home, 923 North Morgan street, death resulting from pneumonia, after a short illness. The deceased was 36 years old, and would have been 37 on January 6.

He was born and reared in this county, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Owen. Mrs. Owen, his mother, expired a few months ago and he is survived by his father, two brothers, Clarence and Frank of this city, and five sisters, Mrs. Lillie Moulton of Danville, Ill., Mrs. Stella Inman of Milroy, Mrs. Frank Warlick of north of here, and the Misses Bertha and Nora Owen, who resided at home.

The deceased was employed at the Dan Long garage as a battery expert, and he was a talented musician playing a clarinet in the Rushville band, the Community orchestra, the Christian church orchestra and the Odd Fellow's orchestra. He also assisted many times in the high school band. He was a member of the Christian church and the Odd Fellows lodge.

Several days ago he contracted a carbuncle and poisoning developed, which combined with pneumonia, proved fatal, and he was taken bed-fast last Thursday. The funeral arrangements were not completed today.

The deceased held a position in the Grand Encampment of Indiana, having been a Herald of the Grand Encampment, of Odd Fellows. He became a member of Franklin Lodge 35, in 1907, and soon passed the chairs and received all honors of the local lodge and encampment and became a member of the Grand Lodge of Indiana where he attracted notice because of his sterling qualities.

He was appointed Herald at the Grand Encampment in November 1921 and was prevented from attending the annual session last week on account of the illness that resulted in his death.

NEW BUNGALOW IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

New House About Completed by G. P. McCarty Is Set on Fire by Over heated Furnace

FIRE CONFINED TO BASEMENT

A new bungalow, ready for occupancy, owned by G. P. McCarty, and located at 937 North Harrison street, was damaged by fire this morning at 7:30 o'clock, to the possible extent of $50, when the overheated furnace set fire to wood and kindling in the basement.

The blaze was confined to the basement, but the entire house was damaged by smoke. Mr. McCarty, who resides in the next house north, was at home, and a passerby discovered the smoke leaping from the basement windows. Mr. and Mrs. McCarty were preparing to move into the new dwelling in a few days.

Firemen directed two lines of hose on the blaze, and chemicals were used at first in an effort to prevent a heavy loss from water, but it was necessary to flood the basement in order to keep the flames from burning through the first floor. Over thirty minutes were required to subdue the flames.

Two divisions of the fire department answered the telephone call, including the chemical engine and the hose wagon. The pumper remained at the station to answer a second alarm, or to be ready in case another fire would take place in some other portion of the city.

Turning on the Light

Our job of farming is the basic industry of this country. It always has been. It always will be.

WE HAD backed into the shadows, as it were, because other industries organized, grew powerful, and centered the spotlight upon themselves.

If the people of this country are to know what we're trying to do, know what we're up against, we have got to get out of the shadows; we have got to turn the light onto our problems.

That's just what the Farm Bureau is doing. It is throwing light onto our marketing methods. It is turning the light onto farm problems in Washington. The railroads know more about the farmers' shipping problems because the Farm Bureau turned the light onto that question.

You know more about the work in your own county because of the Farm Bureau light. Many other problems have been lighted up and others will be as we come to them. But the greatest work of the Farm Bureau can be done only when every farmer puts his shoulder to the wheel in a co-operative effort for all.

Are you a member? If so, tell your neighbor. If not, join up; then tell him.

AMUSEMENTS

"Manslaughter" Pleases

For the first time in many years Cecil B. DeMille copied the feminine convict fashions of the day in his new Paramount production "Manslaughter." The DeMille wardrobe, under the direction of Clara West, has become world famous for the original fashion creations which it has produced for each succeeding Cecile B. DeMille production. Fashion designers the world over have consulted the producer on matters of feminine style.

In "Manslaughter", however, Mr. DeMille dresses the women of his cast in one part of the story, according to the dictates of other fashion dictators—the prison authorities of the State of New York.

In order that every detail of the costumes worn by the women prisoners in the penitentiary scenes of the picture might be absolutely correct, Cecil B. DeMille sent his assistant, Cullen Tate, to New York for genuine specimens of prison attire. As a result, the clothes worn by Leatrice Joy, Lois Wilson and the other inmates of the penitentiary are authentic reproductions of the clothing worn by criminals serving sentence.

Shirley Mason At Mystic

Shirley Mason, the dainty Fox star, will be seen at the Mystic today in her latest starring vehicle, "Youth Must Have Love," which was directed by Joseph Franz.

Miss Mason's latest production is based on the story of a young man unjustly accused of the murder of an old miser, who had gained wealth and position through the unfortunate circumstances of others.

How Earl Stannard, the young man, is vindicated through the never failing faith and untiring aid of a girl provides a romance of intrigue and adventure that promises to surpass all of Miss Mason's previous pictures for exceptional entertainment.

The story carries the audience through a series of unusual incidents and dramatic sequences

BRITISH BREAK WITH GREECE

London, Nov. 29—Great Britain today suspended relations with Greece because of the execution yesterday of six ministers of the cabinet which fell when King Constantine abdicated, it was officially announced. British Minister Lindley was ordered to Lausanne to confer with Lord Curzon, foreign secretary, upon further drastic action toward the Greek government.

RECOMMENDS WAY TO PREVENT WASTE

State Educational Survey Commission Sees Need of Division of School House Planning

WOULD COST $10,000 A YEAR

Small Amount is a Pittance in View of Importance of Conserving Health of Children

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 29—To guard against waste of public money and extravagance in the construction of school buildings, as well as to guarantee that all new structures meet with all reasonable requirements, the State Department of Education should have a division of school house planning, says the state educational survey commission's report to Governor McCray.

"A division of this kind would cost only $10,000 a year," said the report. "This small amount is a pittance in view of the importance of conserving the health and physical welfare of the 575,000 school children of the state and of safeguarding the expenditure of more than $7,500,000 annually on permanent school improvements."

The one-teacher school buildings are condemned generally by the commission declaring that only 900 of the 4500 such schools are fitted for the conduct of school, and that most of the 3600 others are "mere places in which to hold school."

"Into these poor school houses," said the report, "go the young, inexperienced, untrained teachers. Indiana, therefore, like most other states, has the poorest teachers and the poorest school plants working together, with the inevitable result that country children obtain their education under the most unfortunate conditions."

Consolidated schools are favored by the commission, but it said complete elimination of the small school is impossible.

Ninety percent of the city and town schools does not meet present day requirements, and the additions to the old buildings were said generally to be below the standards for lighting, ventilation, heating and sanitary arrangements, and "should not be erected." Equipment of the town and city schools was found to be usually good, and much better than in the country, especially the one and two teacher schools.

RICHES HAVE WINGS:—Labor not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom. For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away.—Proverbs 23: 4, 5.

Thanksgiving Customs

The old Thanksgiving period was one of a threefold character—sports, feasting and religion. One famous custom was the Thanksgiving raffle, always held on Thanksgiving eve. Turkeys, geese and chickens were raffled off and the event was attended with keen zest and excitement. Another feature was the shooting match usually held in the morning and therefore not approved by the Church. In this contest the marksmen fired at chicken, turkeys, geese, etc., and the fowls selected for the occasion were always the toughest that could be procured so that the match would last longer, for the shooting must go on until the fowl was dead and tough ones could withstand a great deal of shot.

The Yankee Thanksgiving was the one time in the year when the hard, gloomy religious life relaxed a bit and the feast was looked forward to all the year with an excitement which has now entirely disappeared. Every table, whether rich or poor, had its feast in varying degrees of sumptuousness.

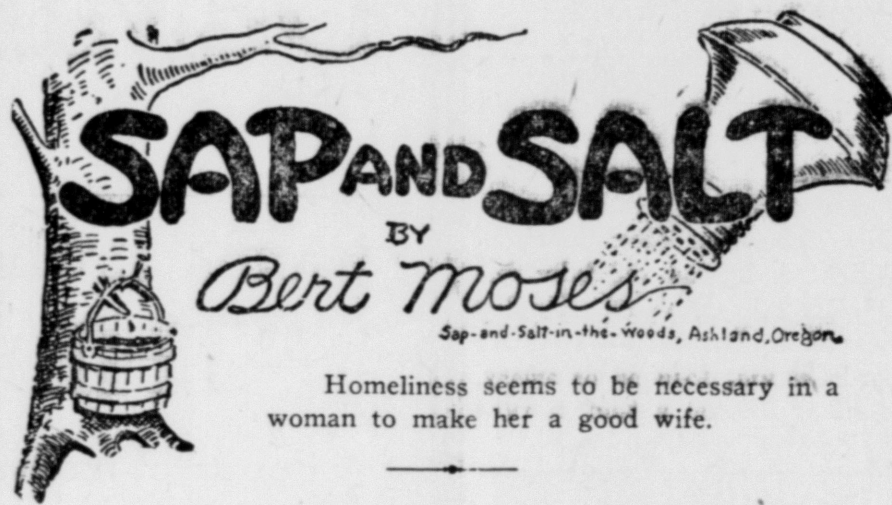

In later years Thanksgiving Day was the fashionable day to make calls. Receptions were held and the Thanksgiving ball was popular. It was good form for the gentle folk to keep open house on that day.

Another strange way of celebrating the day was known in some sections until very recent times, and that was to dress up in fantastic costumes and parade through the town. These "ragamuffin" parades have fallen into disuse. Prizes were distributed among the paraders and there were among them local statesmen as well as small boys and ragamuffins.

Fiery, Itchy Skin Quickly Soothed With Sulphur

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store. —Advertisement

GRID SEASON IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Notre Dame One of Two Indiana Teams in Action Saturday, Playing at Lincoln, Neb.

WABASH GOES TO MEMPHIS
Picking of All Star Aggregations Should be Deferred Until Entire Season is Over

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 29—The football season has almost reached its end and already the critics are picking the all-American, all-western or all-state teams. However, in all fairness to the players, the critics should wait until the final games have been played before selection of the mythical eleven that means so much to football players.

This week the big college games in which an Indiana team competes is the game between Notre Dame and Nebraska at Lincoln, Neb. Interest in the game is shown by the fact that every seat in the big Nebraska field was sold more than ten days ago. Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame is taking a wonderful eleven to Lincoln, in spite of the fact that Castner, star backfield man, was injured in the Butler game. Nebraska has been defeated in only one game losing to Syracuse University by a close score.

Purdue, Indiana, DePauw, Franklin, Earlham, Hanover, Rose Poly, and Valparaiso all have finished their grid schedules. Wabash plays the Tennessee Medics at Memphis Saturday.

There are numerous high school games this week. The Technical-Mannual game of course holds the centre of interest in Indianapolis, and is scheduled to be played Wednesday, Nov. 29. The most important Thanksgiving Day high school game will be played at Evansville when Central high school meets Sheridan. The Central Team is the champion of Southern Indiana and only the victory of Wiley high school of Terre Haute mars the wonderful record made by the Evansville team.

Last Act of 1922 Football

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 29—All the odds and ends of football will be gathered together tomorrow and tucked away on the shelf for the official finale of '22.

Most of the Thanksgiving Days are survivals of old established classics that have not given away to modern idea of letting the grid warriors enjoy the holiday.

In point of tradition, the Cornell-Pennsylvania game at Philadelphia will be the biggest game of the day.

Cornell with one of the best teams in the country looks to be a long odds favorite, but Penn has refused to be influenced by any kind of doping and they may pull a surprise.

The Penn eleven has been the champion surprise team of the season. When they were doped as a sure loser, they won; when they were hailed as an easy winner, they lost.

Pittsburgh and Penn State are to have their usual tussle at Pittsburgh. Pitt had an in-and-out season losing to Lafayette, West Virginia and Syracuse, but in defeating Washington and Jefferson, Glenn Warner showed a real team.

Defeated by Penn and the Navy and getting only a draw with Syracuse, Penn State has had sort of an off-season compared to the records of the past two seasons.

Pittsburgh looks to be a slight favorite.

In the middle-west the real battle of the day should be staged by Nebraska and Notre Dame. Both teams showed in the east and on the game they played, Notre Dame looks like the favorite.

Nebraska was not only beaten by

Syracuse, but was made to look very bad with it. Notre Dame played one of the greatest Army teams of years to a scoreless tie and the honors all went to the westerners.

The south goes in more for "Turkey Day" games than any other section of the country and a number of good games will be played below the Mason-Dixon line. Among the headliners are:

Georgia Tech and Auburn at Atlanta.

Centre and South Carolina at Danville.

George Washington and Georgetown at Washington.

John Hopkins and Washington and Lee at Baltimore.

Tennessee and Kentucky at Knoxville.

Vanderbilt and University of the South at Nashville.

Virginia and North Carolina at Charlottesville.

The Georgia Tech-Auburn game ought to be a bear. Both are standing for the championship of the south, since Auburn defeated Centre. Auburn has lost only one game and that to the powerful Army eleven. Tech has lost to the Navy and Notre Dame, all teams out of their own sections.

West Virginia and Washington and Jefferson would have had the place of honor perhaps on the entire schedule, if W and J had not been defeated by Pittsburgh.

When the Presidents defeated Lafayette, they were regarded as having one of the greatest teams in the whole country, but they got a sad bumping from Pitt.

West Virginia is still undefeated and is in the running for the eastern championship. Although it seems that the Mountaineers have recruited another team of the ability of the 1919 and 1920 combinations, they should have a time with W and J, as the Pennsylvania hardly will play another game like they did against Pitt.

Washington and Oregon and Southern California and Washington State have the big games on the Pacific Coast.

THREE GAMES ON THE SATURDAY NIGHT CARD

Second Teams From High School Will Take on Muncie Midgets and Muncie Kewpies

CLASS GAME FOR OPENER

Two basketball teams from Muncie will play here Saturday night at the Graham Annex, and three games are on the card for that night. The Muncie Midgets, three times state champions in the 125-pound class, will meet the Rushville high school second team, which will be weighed in, to meet the required 125-pound class.

The Muncie Kewpies, another fast team in the 95-pound class, will also meet a team from the local school which will average 95 pounds, and a curtain raiser will be played between the Senior class team and a team composed of underclassmen.

Coach Stephenson of the teams here is putting the squads through daily practice, and an effort will be made to win the games from the two Muncie teams. Several other games in this class are being arranged this year.

The doors Saturday night will open at 6:45 and the regular admission will be charged.

GREENSBURG HERE FOR GAME FRIDAY

Conquerors of Whiteland, Who Have Won Nine Straight Games Out to Annex Another One

TEST FOR THE LOCAL TOSSERS

Rushville high school basketball tossers will tackle the Greensburg aggregation here Friday night, and the visiting team is coming prepared to make it the tenth straight victory for them this season. The locals, however, may break their winning streak, and if they play ball like they did at Shelbyville last Friday, the Tree City quintet will go home with the short end of the score.

Greensburg triumphed over Whiteland 46 to 21 a few weeks ago, and they also defeated Westport, Osgood Batesville, Burney, Moscow and other teams. The Greensburg team this year is regarded as much stronger than previous years, and may give Rushville a stiff battle. Greensburg has reserved 150 seats and will bring a drum corps with their delegation of rooters.

The curtain raiser Friday night will be played between the second teams of the two schools, and Greensburg is said to have a good squad on their second string.

Greensburg is planning to send a large delegation of rooters here for the contest.

MERITS ARE REORGANIZED

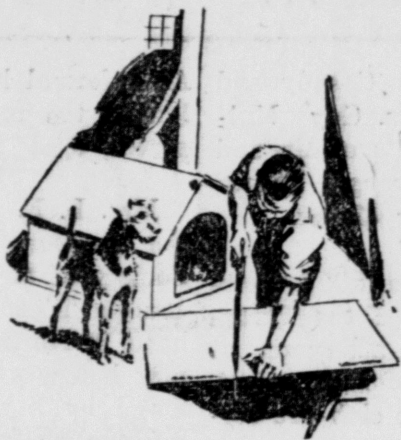

Will Play Basketball Teams in 135-Pound Class

The Merits basketball team, which was recently organized to play teams in the 120-pound class, has disbanded and a new team is being organized to play road games with teams in the 135-pound class. Candidates wishing to try out are asked to get in communication with Lemoine Smith, R. R. 6 Rushville.

Games are wanted with such teams as the Arlington Junior A. C.'s Morristown I independents, Homer Independents, Knightstown Home, Connersville Caddies and Greensburg Scouts. Team seeking games are urged to address Smith or Arthur Walker, care of the Daily Republican office.

SOCIETY

Edited By Miss Edna Krammes
Phone 1111

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Casady and family and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mulbarger will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frazee of Orange, Thursday, for Thanksgiving dinner.

Miss Elsie Bohannon will be hostess to the members of the Tarry-A-While club Friday afternoon at her home in North Morgan street. All the members of the club are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mattox Circle, 51, Ladies of the G. A. R. will hold their regular meeting in the assembly room of the court house on Friday afternoon, promptly at two o'clock. A good attendance is desired as officers for the ensuing year will be elected at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Offutt will have as their dinner guests Thanksgiving at their home in Second street, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Humes, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Humes and son, Mr. and Mrs. Noble G. Wills and children of Connersville.

Mrs. Will Brown gave an interesting review of "Bent Twig", a book by Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Fisher, at the meeting of the Shakespeare club Tuesday evening held at the home of Mrs. D. D. Ball in West Ninth street.

An informal hour was enjoyed following the review and the hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. L. E. Brown was hostess to the members of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Main street. The regular business meeting was held followed by a short program and an informal social period. A light lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Frazee entertained the members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority Tuesday evening at her home in North Main street. During the evening plans were discussed for the Christmas Seals Sale, of which the sorority has charge. A delightful social hour was enjoyed by the guests after the meeting and the hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Frazee, served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ogden and family, missionaries on furlough from Tibet, will be guests of the Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church, at a dinner to be given in the church basement Thursday evening, December 7. The members of the society look forward with great anticipation to the visiting of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden and their two children.

The members of the Sexton Missionary Society will observe "Woman's Day" Sunday evening at 7 p. m. in the Christian church at Sexton. An appropriate program in observance of the day has been planned. Mrs. Martha Grindle of this city will give a talk on her trip to the Holy Land and The Passion Play. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Flint have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Leah Adelle Flint to John C. Fout, of Connersville, which took place last Thursday afternoon at the High Street Methodist church in Muncie. The bride is popularly known in this city, being a graduate of the local high school and also is a member of the Psi Iota Xi sorority. She is now engaged in teaching school in Muncie having taken normal training at Terre Haute for two years and also having attended Randolph Macon College for Women at Lynchburg, Va. The bridegroom has been employed in the office of the Anstead Engineering Company of Connersville for several years.

The Glenwood Sorosis Club celebrated the club's fourteenth birthday anniversary Tuesday evening, with a pitch-in supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Caldwell in this city. Thirty-seven members and guests were present for the affair, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Garret Gray and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jeffrey of Connersville, Mrs. Malinda Scholl, Miss Myrtle Hires, Miss Stella Shortridge and Miss Margaret Britt of Glenwood. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion in the club colors of pink and white and following the serving of the supper at 7:00 o'clock, an informal entertainment was given, consisting of contests, two vocal selections by Dr. J. T. Paxton and readings by Miss Sarah Scholl. On account of illness, the club president, Mrs. J. E. Walther, was unable to be present. She underwent an operation several weeks ago at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville, and is still compelled to remain in bed, at her home in Glenwood, although she is improving slowly.

The Woman of Poise

Once a rarity, is now to be observed and admired upon every hand. Indeed, no other woman can flourish long in the midst of this modern, complicated life. In the home, in business, in social life, the woman who is serene and confident wins, while the nervous, flustered individual wastes her talents and gets nowhere. Of course, poise is dependent mainly upon sound health and steady nerves. If you feel that you are being kept back in this way, why not turn to that great woman's remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which was manufactured from a thorough understanding of the nervous system of women?

Let Us Fix Up That Suit

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new.

Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

No matter how the condition, bring in that suit. Let us fix it, or press it, or both. We'll frankly tell you if it's beyond hope.

Elmer J. Ralston, Age 50, Dies From
Effects of Being Hit on Head
by Twelve Foot Board

HURT AT FURNITURE FACTORY

Injuries Did Not at First Appear to
Be Serious Until He Lapsed Into
Unconsciousness

Elmer J. Ralston, age 50 years, 307 East-Eighth street, who was fatally hurt Monday afternoon at the Rushville Furniture factory, expired of injuries at his home Tuesday night about seven o'clock.

The deceased, while working as a band saw operator at the factory, was struck in the head with a twelve foot board which toppled off of a small truck in the factory, on Monday afternoon. Fellow workmen, seeing his danger, gave him warning, but he did not jump out of its way in time, and the plank fell, striking him on the head.

He was not believed to have been hurt seriously, and was taken to the Dr. F. H. Green hospital, where his injuries were dressed, and when he was removed to his home, he walked into the house. At nine o'clock Monday night, he lapsed into unconsciousness, and never regained his senses.

An examination by physicians did not disclose a fractured skull, but he suffered internal hemorrhages, which caused his death at seven o'clock last night.

The deceased came to Rush county two years ago from Johnson county, and moved to Rushville five weeks ago from the L. M. Clark, farm, south of Rushville, where he took employment at the local factory until spring, when he was to move to the Wood Bishop farm northeast of Rushville.

The deceased is survived by the widow and four children, Lawrence, who resides in Indianapolis, and Dorothy, Margaret, and Esther, who reside at home, his mother, Mrs. Eliza J. Ralston of Vernon and a brother, Harvey C. Ralston of Vinton, Iowa.

The funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at ten o'clock at the late residence, and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

AMERICAN ARMY IS NOT TO BE WITHDRAWN

On Rhine Due To Threatened
Crisis In Europe

FRENCH DENY RUHR RUMOR

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 29.—The French embassy here issued a statement today denying reports that France had decided to seize the Ruhr valley in Germany if Germany fails to meet her next reparation payment.

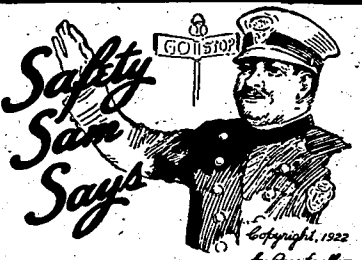

Washington, Nov. 29.—The American army of occupation on the Rhine will not be returned to the United States for the present "because of an important reason in connection with foreign affairs," the United Press was informed today by high authorities of government.

It was indicated that continuing maintenance of the American forces of the Rhine is due to the threatened crisis over the possibility that France will seize the Ruhr valley.

It was declared authoritatively that Secretary Weeks is in favor of bringing the troops home as soon as possible and that the forces were to have been returned two months ago, if it had not been for this important and unnamed development in foreign affairs.

The German government has repeatedly appealed to the United States to maintain its forces believing its presence has acted as a restraint of French policies.

VIGILANTS BATTLE WITH THE UNDERWORLD

War Rages In Smackover, Ark., Oil
Field, One Man Being Killed And
A Number Wounded

PART OF SETTLEMENT BURNS

(By United Press)
Eldorado, Ark., Nov. 29.—A new battle between underworld characters and vigilants has broken out near the border of Onachita and Union counties in the Smackover oil field district, according to reports received here.

A part of the settlement was said to be on fire. Two thousand bootleggers, drive gangs and gamblers are aligned against the vigilants in a skirmish which flared last night and lasted for hours, according to meagre reports.

At least one man was killed and a score wounded in last night's fight reports reaching here indicated.

Unconfirmed reports were that twenty-five were killed or injured. The fight broke out when an ultimatum delivered by the vigilants ordering the underworld element to leave town by midnight, was ignored.

The district has been turbulent since Sunday. The underworld element was said to be well organized. Stragglers arriving here from near the scene of the reported fighting, said several houses in the underworld were said to have been burned.

ARE ENCOURAGED BY ROLL CALL REPORTS

Three Townships Show More Than
100 Per Cent Gain In Red Cross
Memberships For 1923

ENCOURAGING IN THE CITY

Those in charge of the annual Red Cross Roll Call, which opened November 11 (Armistice Day) and is scheduled to close Thanksgiving Day, are very much encouraged by partial reports that are being received at Roll Call headquarters in the recorder's office at the court house.

Three townships have reported more than a hundred per cent increase in membership for 1923 and the city canvassers have met with encouragement in soliciting membership for the coming year.

The most decided gains were made in Richland Orange and Posey townships. Richland did not turn in a single membership last Roll Call, but forty-nine have been reported from the township, which has not been completely canvassed. One canvasser in Orange township has obtained fourteen members for 1923, with three-fourths of the township yet to report. There were only five members in this township this year. Posey, which in the 1922 Roll Call, enrolled only eighteen members, has so far reported eighty-one memberships, with one-fourth of the township not heard from. The west half of Walker township has reported sixty 1923 members and the east half is expected to do equally as well. Approximately $560 has been raised in Rushville city and there are several districts yet to report.

265 ILLITERATES IN RUSH COUNTY

Of This Number, 87 Live in Rushville, According to Statistics
Gathered on Subject

BIG PERCENT A SURPRISE

American Educational Week Arranged to Make Impossible Such Conditions as Exist Here

There are 265 persons in Rush county who do not know how to read or write, according to figures given out in connection with American Education Week, to be observed throughout the United States, from December 3 to the 10. Of this number, 87 live within the city limits of Rushville, the figures show.

The fact that this large number of illiterate people live in Rushville and the county, comes as a distinct shock to most people, and demonstrates forcefully the need of some such movement as American Education Week, school officials point out.

In this connection, the figures also reveal that the number of illiterates in the state has increased within the last ten years. The list of illiterates includes feeble minded people in state institutions, and others who have neglected to obtain an education.

A large percent of the illiterates in the county have lived here all of their lives, it is reported. Some are foreigners and some have moved here from other parts of the United States but the failure to educate the bulk of them falls upon the schools of the county and city, it is declared. Failure to enforce school attendance laws in past years is believed to be the cause of much of the illiteracy. The school attendance law has been strengthened and is now better enforced with the result that few girls or boys are now growing up in the county without learning to read and write, it is stated.

The number of illiterates in Rush county is above the number for some of the adjoining counties, and in some places the counties and cities around here are above Rush county. The greatest number of such people are found in the northern counties along Lake Michigan, which is due to foreigners residing there. In Lake county, 9,627 illiterates reside, according to the survey.

With 265 illiterates in Rush county, the figures for some of the other counties are as follows: Shelby 411, Wayne 535, Henry 577, Fayette 224, Hancock 195, Union 66, Franklin 211, Decatur 177, and Ripley 149.

A comparison of the cities also is made, with Rushville at 87, Shelbyville 165, Warsaw 31, Winchester 55, Connersville 135, Greenfield 50, Greensburg 76, Franklin 88, Columbus 190, Labanon 92, Martinsville 106, Seymour 62, Newcastle 151, Richmond 330 and Greencastle 59.

SERVICES TO BE AT 10 A. M.

Hour For Thanksgiving Union Meeting Thursday Is Changed

The annual union Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Presbyterian church Thursday morning at ten o'clock, instead of 10:30, as previously announced, and the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. E. W. McKibbin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church will deliver the sermon. A combined choir representing all the churches will provide special music.

Business will be generally suspended during the day. The banks, clothing stores, dry goods stores and practically all other retail establishments will be closed for the day. The postoffice will be closed, but perishable mail and special deliveries will be delivered and mail will be dispatched as usual.

ODD FELLOWS NOTICE

The members of Franklin lodge No. 35 I. O. O. F. will meet at the hall Friday at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of Claude C. Owen.

RYON FREED IN PATERNITY CASE

Jury Hears Similar Suit Today In Which John Passmore Of Near Manilla Is Defendant

MANY WITNESSES SUMMONED

Twenty-Six Names Drawn For Special
Jury Service To Hear Two Criminal Cases

The jury which heard the case in the circuit court acquitted Charley Ryon of this city on the paternity charges filed by Edith Ellerman, a resident of Franklin county, and the jury today was against sitting in another paternity case in which John Passmore of near Manilla was the defendant, and Stella Walls of the same community, was the prosecuting witness.

The case today was longer in the evidence than the one yesterday, as there were many witnesses summoned for the trial. The case yesterday was brief, and was tried in a few hours, and the jury acquitted the defendant within half an hour after they got the case.

The defendant today was charged with being the father of a child born to Stella Walls in June 1921. It is charged that the defendant named by the young woman left the vicinity a few weeks ago, when he returned he was arrested.

The attorneys for the defense attempted to show that several other young men of that community left about the same time, but the prosecuting witness denied that she ever associated with any other than the one named.

Twenty-six names were ordered drawn for special jury service this morning to be used in two prominent state cases. A portion of these jurors are to be called Friday when the case of the state against Fred Clevenger is set for trial. The defendant is accused of having sold liquor. The rest of the jurors will be called for service on Monday when Mary Ellen Hughes, a Rushville girl is scheduled to be tried on a charge of embezzlement of funds from the Johnson drug store.

Four new civil suits have been docketed in this court. The case of Fred Hilligoss against Donel Laughlin, filed in Justice Stech's court, and dismissed because of lack of jurisdiction, has been refiled in the circuit court, with the demand on an account for $175.

John Moore is plaintiff in a suit for divorce from Fannie Moore, alleging that she was cruel, failed to cook his meals, stayed out at nights, and made life miserable for him. They were married July 27, 1903 and separated January 16, 1920, according to the complaint. He also asks the custody of their two sons. The plaintiff is a resident of Arlington.

Edwin F. Shideler is plaintiff in a suit filed against John R. Thompson of this city, the complaint being for $275, on an account which is alleged to be past due.

J. B. Colt of New York City has also filed a suit against Denny Whitaker of southwestern Rush county, the complaint being on a contract, with the demand for $300 judgement.

Red Cross Thanks-Giving

By ROBERT E. MANSFIED

In this season of Thanksgiving, the people of Rush county should remember the American Red Cross, which has in the past, and is at the present time, giving relief, aid and comfort to thousands of unfortunates who are suffering, and in sorrow.

The annual roll call for membership is drawing to a close, and tomorrow, Thanksgiving day, when you return thanks for a bountiful dinner, and the many blessings that have come to you during the year 1922, and to the spirit of thankfulness that pervades the country on the greatest of our national feast days, an act of Christian charity by giving your dollar to the Red Cross.

The Little Theatre

By JESSIE SPANN GARY
The dramatic instinct is as old as life itself. It should be cultivated, not repressed.

In the history of the drama great things have been done, only when it has been close to the people, all the people, not just those who can pay for a box seat. The American stage, so long stultified by the box office and the star system, is entering up on a period of regeneration, and this is due chiefly to the Little Theatre groups, who are now extending their influence to the small town. Do we wait Rushville to lag behind?

The fact that we have abundant talent, both musical and dramatic, has been demonstrated again and again. The only criticism of recent home talent productions has been that they lack variety. This deficiency the Little Theatre hopes to supply by offering choice bits of legitimate drama; by giving us all something to think about as well as something to enjoy.

It is my earnest hope that the Little Theatre may become a permanent institution, and a source of community pride. This is the accepted time because we have, just now in the leadership of Raymond Gregg, an opportunity that should not be neglected. "The play's the thing." Let's all lend our talents, whether they be ten, five or only one.

LUNCHEON TO MARK CAMPAIGN OPENING

M. A. Auberbach, Secretary Of Indiana Tuberculosis Association
To Address Workers Here

CHRISTMAS SEALS DRIVE

A luncheon at the Social Club Saturday noon will mark the beginning of the Christmas Seals campaign in Rush county, which will be conducted this year by the Phi Iota Xi sorority under the auspices of the Woman's Council.

At the luncheon, M. A. Auberbach of Indianapolis, secretary of the Indiana Tuberculosis association, and Mrs. Curtis Hodges, also of Indianapolis, will speak and will give the workers present an insight into what will be expected of them in the forthcoming campaign.

The luncheon will be attended by the members of the Woman's Council and the sorority, and the members of the township advisory board of the council.

The proceeds from the sale of the little Christmas stickers are the main source of revenue for financing the city nurse and for supporting the modern health crusades and tuberculosis clinics in the township.

BROOKS TO DIE IN THE "CHAIR" FRIDAY

Seymour Man Sits in His Cell Thinking Not of Thanksgiving Day But the Day Following

CONVICTED OF MURDER IN MAY

Michigan City, Ind. Nov. 29.—Ben Brooks sat in his cell today thinking not of tomorrow—Thanksgiving day—but of Friday, December 1.

In the first hour of Friday, Brooks will die in the electric chair at the state prison.

He was convicted last spring of the murder of A. B. Montgomery at Seymour, Ind. He had quarrelled with Montgomery for starting a story about his stealing chickens, he said.

In May he was sentenced to death. Setting a date for the execution was delayed while he appealed to the state supreme court. This body recently upheld the ruling of the lower judiciary.

Tomorrow, with other prisoners, he will eat chicken, oyster dressing, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, apples, celery and pumpkin pie. This probably will be his last large meal in this world.

Soon after the clock tolls the hour of midnight tomorrow night, Brooks will take his place in the electric chair and die.

CLAUDE OWEN DIES AT HIS HOME HERE

Well Known As Musician And Gained
Prominence In Odd Fellows Lodge
Holding Position of Herald

NAMED BY GRAND ENCAMPMENT

Poisoning Develops After Deceased
Contracted Carbuncle And Pneumonia Complications Are Fatal

Claude Owen, a well known musician and young man, expired this morning about 10:30 o'clock at the family home, 923 North Morgan street, death resulting from pneumonia, after a short illness. The deceased was 36 years old, and would have been 37 on January 6.

He was born and reared in this county, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Owen. Mrs. Owen, his mother, expired a few months ago and he is survived by his father, two brothers, Clarence and Frank of this city, and five sisters, Mrs. Lillie Moulton of Danville, Ill., Mrs. Stella Inman of Milroy, Mrs. Frank Warrick of north of here, and the Misses Bertha and Nora Owen, who resided at home.

The deceased was employed at the Dan Long garage as a battery expert, and he was a talented musician playing a clarinet in the Rushville band, the Community orchestra, the Christian church orchestra, and the Odd Fellow's orchestra. He also assisted many times in the high school band. He was a member of the Christian church and the Odd Fellows lodge.

Several days ago he contracted a carbuncle and poisoning developed, which combined with pneumonia, proved fatal, and he was taken bed-fast last Thursday. The funeral arrangements were not completed today.

The deceased held a position in the Grand Encampment of Indiana, having been a Herald of the Grand Encampment, of Odd Fellows. He became a member of Franklin Lodge 35, in 1907, and soon passed the chairs and received all honors of the local lodge and encampment and became a member of the Grand Lodge of Indiana where he attracted notice because of his sterling qualities.

He was appointed Herald at the Grand Encampment in November 1921 and was prevented from attending the annual session last week on account of the illness that resulted in his death.

NEW BUNGALOW IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

New House About Completed by G.
P. McCarty Is Set on Fire by Over heated Furnace

FIRE CONFINED TO BASEMENT

A new bungalow, ready for occupancy, owned by G. P. McCarty, and located at 937 North Harrison street, was damaged by fire this morning at 7:30 o'clock, to the possible extent of $50, when the overheated furnace set fire to wood and kindling in the basement.

The blaze was confined to the basement, but the entire house was damaged by smoke. Mr. McCarty, who resides in the next house north, was at home, and a passerby discovered the smoke leaping from the basement windows. Mr. and Mrs. McCarty were preparing to move into the new dwelling in a few days.

Firemen directed two lines of hose on the blaze, and chemicals were used at first in an effort to prevent a heavy loss from water, but it was necessary to flood the basement in order to keep the flames from burning through the first floor. Over thirty minutes were required to subdue the flames.

Two divisions of the fire department answered the telephone call, including the chemical engine and the hose wagon. The pumper remained at the station to answer a second alarm, or to be ready in case another fire would take place in some other portion of the city.

Here's the Answer

The changeable weather of Autumn gives rise to a knotty problem of dressing for comfort and health. Most folks lean toward the warmer periods—that's why colds are so prevalent when the ther-

Turning on the Light

Our job of farming is the basic industry of this country. It always has been. It always will be.

WE HAD backed into the shadows, as it were, because other industries organized, grew powerful, and centered the spotlight upon themselves.

If the people of this country are to know what we're trying to do, know what we're up against, we have got to get out of the shadows; we have got to turn the light onto our problems.

That's just what the Farm Bureau is doing. It is throwing light onto our marketing methods. It is turning the light onto farm problems in Washington. The railroads know more about the farmers' shipping problems because the Farm Bureau turned the light onto that question.

You know more about the work in your own county because of the Farm Bureau light. Many other problems have been lighted up and others will be as we come to them. But the greatest work of the Farm Bureau can be done only when every farmer puts his shoulder to the wheel in a co-operative effort for all.

Are you a member? If so, tell your neighbor. If not, join up; then tell him.

AMUSEMENTS

"Manslaughter" Pleases

For the first time in many years Cecil B. DeMille copied the feminine convict fashions of the day in his new Paramount production "Manslaughter." The DeMille wardrobe, under the direction of Clara West, has become world famous for the original fashion creations which it has produced for each succeeding Cecile B. DeMille production. Fashion designers the world over have consulted the producer on matters of feminine style.

In "Manslaughter," however, Mr. DeMille dresses the women of his cast in one part of the story, according to the dictates of other fashion dictators—the prison authorities of the State of New York. In order that every detail of the costumes worn by the women prisoners in the penitentiary scenes of the picture might be absolutely correct, Cecil B. DeMille sent his assistant, Cullen Tate, to New York for genuine specimens of prison attire. As a result, the clothes worn by Leatrice Joy, Lois Wilson and the other inmates of the penitentiary are authentic reproductions of the clothing worn by criminals serving sentence.

Shirley Mason At Mystic

Shirley Mason, the dainty Fox star, will be seen at the Mystic today in her latest starring vehicle, "Youth Must Have Love," which was directed by Joseph Franz.

Miss Mason's latest production is based on the story of a young man unjustly accused of the murder of an old miser, who had gained wealth and position through the unfortunate circumstances of others.

How Earl Stannard, the young man, is vindicated through the never failing faith and untiring aid of a girl, provides a romance of intrigue and adventure that promises to surpass all of Miss Mason's previous pictures for exceptional entertainment.

The story carries the audience through a series of unusual incidents and dramatic sequences

GRID SEASON IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Notre Dame One of Two Indiana Teams in Action Saturday, Playing at Lincoln, Neb.

WABASH GOES TO MEMPHIS

Picking of All Star Aggregations Should be Deferred Until Entire Season is Over

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 29.—The football season has almost reached its end and already the critics are picking the all-American, all-western or all-state teams. However, in all fairness to the players, the critics should wait until the final games have been played before selection of the mythical eleven that means so much to football players.

This week the big college games in which an Indiana team competes is the game between Notre Dame and Nebraska at Lincoln, Neb. Interest in the game is shown by the fact that every seat in the big Nebraska field was sold more than ten days ago. Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame is taking a wonderful eleven to Lincoln, in spite of the fact that Castner, star backfield man, was injured in the Butler game. Nebraska has been defeated in only one game losing to Syracuse University by a close score.

Purdue, Indiana, DePauw, Franklin, Earlham, Hanover, Rose Poly, and Valparaiso all have finished their grid schedules. Wabash plays the Tennessee Medics at Memphis Saturday.

There are numerous high school games this week. The Technical-Mannual game of course holds the centre of interest in Indianapolis, and is scheduled to be played Wednesday, Nov. 29. The most important Thanksgiving Day high school game will be played at Evansville when Central high school meets Sheridan. The Central Team is the champion of Southern Indiana and only the victory of Wiley high school of Terre Haute mars the wonderful record made by the Evansville team.

Last Act of 1922 Football

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Nov. 29.—All the odds and ends of football will be gathered together tomorrow and tucked away on the shelf for the official finale of '22.

Most of the Thanksgiving Days are survivals of old established classics that have not given away to modern idea of letting the grid warriors enjoy the holiday.

In point of tradition, the Cornell-Pennsylvania game at Philadelphia will be the biggest game of the day. Cornell with one of the best teams in the country looks to be a long odds favorite, but Penn has refused to be influenced by any kind of doping and they may pull a surprise.

The Penn eleven has been the champion surprise team of the season. When they were doped as a sure loser, they won; when they were hailed as an easy winner, they lost.

Pittsburgh and Penn State are to have their usual tussle at Pittsburgh. Pitt had an in-and-out season losing to Lafayette, West Virginia and Syracuse, but in defeating Washington and Jefferson, Glenn Warner showed a real team.

Defeated by Penn and the Navy and getting only a draw with Syracuse, Penn State has had sort of an off-season compared to the records of the past two seasons. Pittsburgh looks to be a slight favorite.

In the middle-west the real battle of the day should be staged by Nebraska and Notre Dame. Both teams showed in the east and on the game they played, Notre Dame looks like the favorite. Nebraska was not only beaten by Syracuse, but was made to look very bad with it. Notre Dame played one of the greatest Army teams of years to a scoreless tie and the honors all went to the westerners.

The south goes in more for "Turkey Day" games than any other section of the country and a number of good games will be played below the Mason-Dixon line. Among the headliners are:

Georgia Tech and Auburn at Atlanta.

Centre and South Carolina at Danville.

George Washington and Georgetown at Washington.

John Hopkins and Washington and Lee at Baltimore.

Tennessee and Kentucky at Knoxville.

Vanderbilt and University of the South at Nashville.

Virginia and North Carolina at Charlottesville.

The Georgia Tech-Auburn game ought to be a bear. Both are standing for the championship of the south, since Auburn defeated Centre. Auburn has lost only one game and that to the powerful Army eleven. Tech has lost to the Navy and Notre Dame, all teams out of their own sections.

West Virginia and Washington and Jefferson would have had the place of honor perhaps on the entire schedule, if W and J had not been defeated by Pittsburgh.

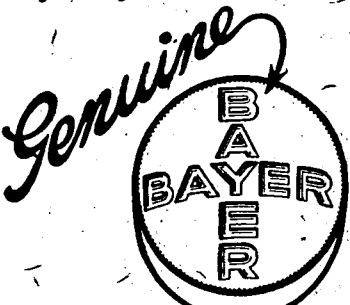

When the Presidents defeated Lafayette, they were regarded as having one of the greatest teams in the whole country, but they got a sad bumping from Pitt.

West Virginia is still undefeated and is in the running for the eastern championship. Although it seems that the Mountaineers have recruited another team of the ability of the 1919 and 1920 combinations, they should have a time with W and J, as the Pennsylvania hardly will play another game like they did against Pitt.

Washington and Oregon and Southern California and Washington State have the big games on the Pacific Coast.

THREE GAMES ON THE SATURDAY NIGHT CARD

Second Teams From High School Will Take on Muncie Midgets and Muncie Kewpies

CLASS GAME FOR OPENER

Two basketball teams from Muncie will play here Saturday night at the Graham Annex, and three games are on the card for that night. The Muncie Midgets, three times state champions in the 125-pound class, will meet the Rushville high school second team, which will be weighed in, to meet the required 125-pound class.

The Muncie Kewpies, another fast team in the 95-pound class, will also meet a team from the local school which will average 95 pounds, and a curtain raiser will be played between the Senior class team and a team composed of underclassmen.

Coach Stephenson of the teams here is putting the squads through daily practice, and an effort will be made to win the games from the two Muncie teams. Several other games in this class are being arranged this year.

The doors Saturday night will open at 6:45 and the regular admission will be charged.

GREENSBURG HERE FOR GAME FRIDAY

Conquerors of Whiteland, Who Have Won Nine Straight Games Out to Annex Another One

TEST FOR THE LOCAL TOSSERS

Rushville high school basketball tossers will tackle the Greensburg aggregation here Friday night, and the visiting team is coming prepared to make it the tenth straight victory for them this season. The locals, however, may break their winning streak, and if they play ball like they did at Shelbyville last Friday, the Tree City quintet will go home with the short end of the score.

Greensburg triumphed over Whiteland 46 to 21 a few weeks ago, and they also defeated Westport, Osgood Batesville, Burney, Moscow and other teams. The Greensburg team this year is regarded as much stronger than previous years, and may give Rushville a stiff battle. Greensburg has reserved 150 seats and will bring a drum corps with their delegation of rooters.

The curtain raiser Friday night will be played between the second teams of the two schools, and Greensburg is said to have a good squad on their second string.

Greensburg is planning to send a large delegation of rooters here for the contest.

MERITS ARE REORGANIZED

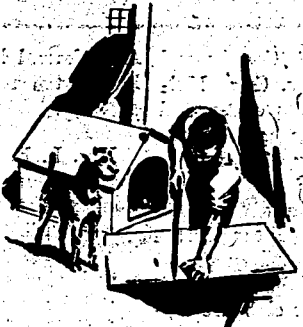

Will Play Basketball Teams in 135-Pound Class

The Merits basketball team, which was recently organized to play teams in the 120-pound class, has disbanded and a new team is being organized to play road games with teams in the 135-pound class. Candidates wishing to try out are asked to get in communication with Lemoine Smith, R. R. 6 Rushville.

Games are wanted with such teams as the Arlington Junior A. C.'s Morristown Independents, Homer Independents, Knightstown Home, Connorsville Caddies and Greensburg Scouts. Team seeking games are urged to address Smith or Arthur Walker, care of the Daily Republican office.

Mrs. Will Brown gave an interesting review of "Bent Twig", a book by Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Fisher, at the meeting of the Shakespeare club Tuesday evening held at the home of Mrs. D. D. Ball in West Ninth street.

An informal hour was enjoyed following the review and the hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. L. E. Brown was hostess to the members of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Main street. The regular business meeting was held followed by a short program and an informal social period. A light lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Frazee entertained the members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority Tuesday evening at her home in North Main street. During the evening plans were discussed for the Christmas Seals Sale, of which the sorority has charge. A delightful social hour was enjoyed by the guests after the meeting and the hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Frazee, served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ogden and family, missionaries on furlough from Tibet, will be guests of the Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church, at a dinner to be given in the church basement Thursday evening, December 7. The members of the society look forward with great anticipation to the visiting of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden and their two children.

The members of the Sexton Missionary Society will observe "Woman's Day" Sunday evening at 7 p. m. in the Christian church at Sexton. An appropriate program in observance of the day has been planned. Mrs. Martha Grindle of this city will give a talk on her trip to the Holy Land and The Passion Play. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Flint have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Leah Adelle Flint to John C. Fout, of Connersville, which took place last Thursday afternoon at the High Street Methodist church in Muncie. The bride is popularly known in this city, being a graduate of the local high school and also is a member of the Psi Iota Xi sorority. She is now engaged in teaching school in Muncie having taken normal training at Terre Haute for two years and also having attended Randolph Macon College for Women at Lynchburg, Va. The bridegroom has been employed in the office of the Anstead Engineering Company of Connersville for several years.

The Glenwood Sorosis Club celebrated the club's fourteenth birthday anniversary Tuesday evening, with a pitch-in supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Caldwell in this city. Thirty-seven members and guests were present for the affair, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Garret Gray and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jeffrey of Connersville, Mrs. Malinda Scholl, Miss Myrtle Hires, Miss Stella Shortridge and Miss Margaret Britt of Glenwood. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion in the club colors of pink and white and following the serving of the supper at 7:00 o'clock, an informal entertainment was given, consisting of contests, two vocal selections by Dr. J. T. Paxton and readings by Miss Sarah Scholl. On account of illness, the club president, Mrs. J. E. Walther, was unable to be present. She underwent an operation several weeks ago at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville, and is still compelled to remain in bed, at her home in Glenwood, although she is improving slowly.

Chiropractic

FOR NERVOUSNESS

We are living at such a rapid pace that it simply gets on our nerves — there is one remedy that is standard—that is the releasing of the Nerve Pressure which is undoubtedly present. Chiropractic does this and if you find the strain is too much for you, see a Chiropractor at once. He will relieve the Nerve Pressure and in a short time, your Nervousness will be a thing of the past.

The Woman of Poise

Once a rarity, is now to be observed and admired upon every hand. Indeed, no other woman can flourish long in the midst of this modern, complicated life. In the home, in business, in social life, the woman who is serene and confident wins, while the nervous, flustered individual wastes her talents and gets nowhere. Of course, poise is dependent mainly upon sound health and steady nerves. If you feel that you are being kept back in this way, why not turn to that great woman's remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which was manufactured from a thorough understanding of the nervous system of women?

Let Us Fix Up That Suit

A neat appearing suit doesn't necessarily mean that it is new.

Many a man who has come to us for a clean and press has been asked this very question, however.

More than that—one of our regular jobs is mending tears and places where the fabric has pulled apart, in such a manner that they cannot be seen. One man after another has received months of wear out of a suit of clothes he thought ready for the "old clothes man."

No matter how the condition, bring in that suit. Let us fix it, or press it, or both. We'll frankly tell you if it's beyond hope.

Chrysanthemums for Thanksgiving

THEIR feathery loveliness and creamy white and golden tints have endeared them to the American heart as much as the other good things of the Thanksgiving season—such as turkeys and plum puddings!

We've the most beautiful assortment of Chrysanthemums you've ever seen. Big luxuriant blossoms as crisp and fresh as the Autumn weather.
